1. Conference venue addresses

Please allocate an extra 15 minutes to your journey, to allow time to navigate around the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park for the first time.

If coming from Stratford International station, when exiting, follow signs for the Olympic Park. Once you're out the station search for “UCL East Marshgate” on your phone navigation or ask for directions to towards the London Stadium to find us.

UCL East is made up of two buildings:

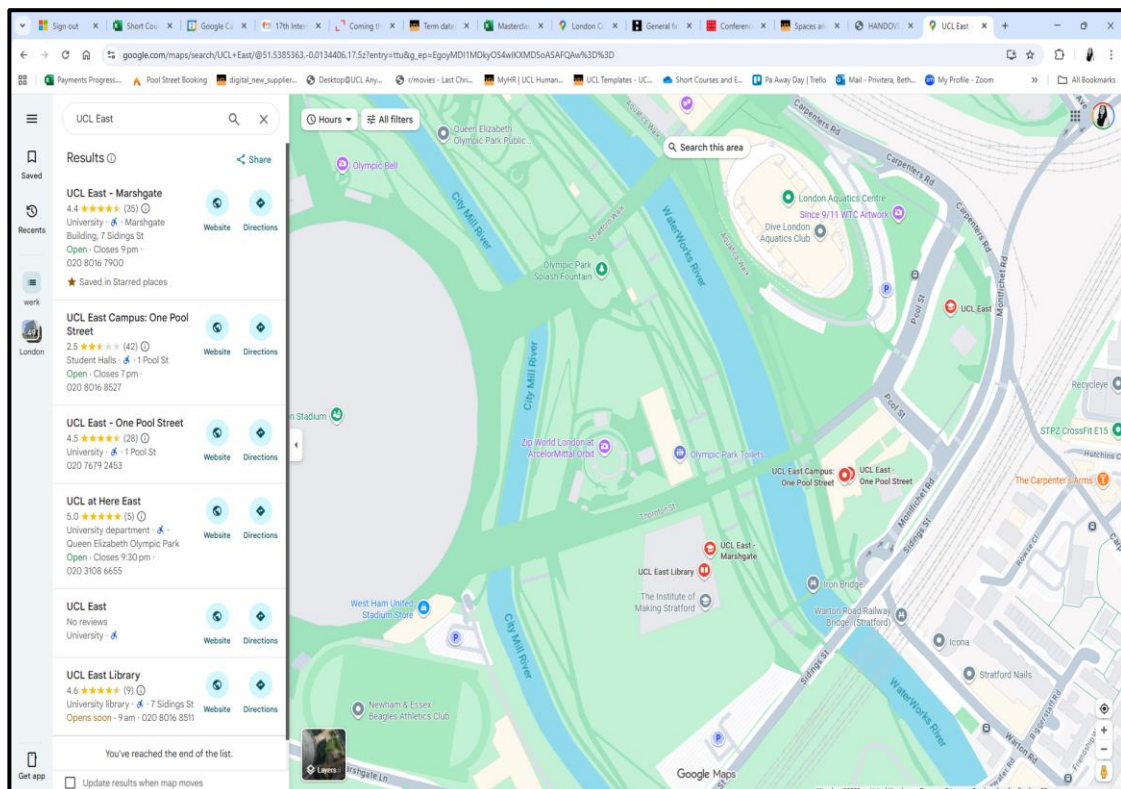

UCL East One Pool Street
1 Pool Street, Stratford,
London E20 2AF

UCL East Marshgate
7 Sidings Street, Stratford,
London E20 2AE

2. Accessibility & Fire Safety

The UCL East campus, including the student accommodation at One Pool Street, have been designed to be fully accessible. The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is car-free, but there are Blue Badge disabled parking facilities and drop-off points on the campus. Accessible parking can be arranged - please email us at ucleast@ucl.ac.uk.

Fire assembly - The fire assembly point for UCLE is to the south of the Marshgate building on the open land.

3. About the location

Our new campus is on Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park at East Bank in Stratford in east London. East Bank is the UK's newest culture and innovation quarter, backed by the Mayor of London and a legacy of the London 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Games. UCL is a founding partner in East Bank, along with other global institutions like the BBC, V&A, Sadler's Wells and London College of Fashion, UAL.

6. Codes of Conduct

We ask all those visiting any of our UCL campuses to abide by our Code of Conduct for Visitors and UCL students are required to abide by our Code of Conduct for Students.

The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is a public park and as such there are byelaws (local laws) that apply to all users of the Park, including our campus and all other areas on the park. Key points to note include regulations on cycling, ball games, and other appropriate behaviour on the Park. Please familiarise yourself with the Newham Park byelaws.

These byelaws apply to Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, which also has its own byelaws. For more information about the areas and topics these cover, access the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park Bylaws.

8. Detailed information on transport connections

UCL East is in the Olympic Park, this location is a 20-minute tube to Central London, (Liverpool Street and Tottenham Court Road) via the Elisabeth Line.

1. London Underground Tube

Stratford Station is the nearest Tube station to UCL East, served by the Central and Jubilee lines. From Stratford station, you can take a free shuttle bus to the campus, which runs approx. every 5 minutes, and the journey takes around 10 minutes. Alternatively, you can walk from Stratford station to UCL East in approximately 20 minutes. The Tube is a convenient and fast way to get to UCL East from anywhere in London and is especially useful if you're travelling from the West End or North London.

Download the London Underground map here.

2. London Overground

Stratford and Stratford International train stations are nearby. Stratford station is also served by the Overground, DLR, and National Rail. The Overground is an excellent option if you're travelling from East or South London and is also well-connected to other transport networks such as the DLR and National Rail. Download Overground Map Visit National Rail Enquiries for train times and tickets.

3. Bus

Several bus routes serve the area around UCL East. Bus routes 97, 108, 308, 339, and 425 all stop near the campus. You can also take the 388 buses from Blackfriars or Elephant & Castle to the campus, which runs every 8-10 minutes during peak hours.

4. Cycling

UCL East is easily accessible by bike, with a dedicated cycle route running through the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, providing a safe and scenic route to the campus. There are also cycle racks available on campus for those who prefer to cycle, making it easy to park your bike when you arrive. Visit the TfL website to learn more about cycling Visit nearby cycle routes.

5. Car

Parking permit eligibility The Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park does not permit UCL to provide parking except for people with accessibility requirements. However, several public car parks are nearby, including the Westfield Stratford City car park and the Stratford Multi-Storey Car Park. Be aware that parking in London can be expensive, so it's worth considering other transport options. Driving is a good option if you're travelling from further afield or have a lot of luggage to carry but be aware that traffic in East London can be heavy at peak times. You can also order a ride from several online apps, such as Bolt, Uber, etc.

Whatever your preferred method of transport, plan your journey in advance to make sure you choose the best option for you. You can visit the Transport for London website to plan your journey and download the Citymapper app on your phone to compare transport options, costs, and live departure times.

9. Nearby accommodation

Budget options

(please bear in mind London is expensive, so even budget options may seem costly relative to your usual location). It's also worth checking for informal accommodation (via an online platform) as we can only list official lodgings such as hotels here.
